

Alcohol Wholesaler Registration Scheme

Your application for J. L. BROOKS LTD was approved

AWRS reference number XRAW 000 0011 4192

Thank you for your application. Based on the information you have given us, we have registered you to trade in wholesale alcohol. This means that we have approved you to carry on a controlled activity under the Alcoholic Liquor Duties Act 1979, section 88C and regulations made under section 88E.

You must meet the general conditions and restrictions of AWRS. These are set out in Excise Notice 2002. You can find this on our website at GOV.UK.

About making changes

You must use the AWRS service to tell us about any changes to your registration details, trading premises or any other information set out in paragraph 10 of Excise Notice 2002. This includes telling us if you stop trading in wholesale alcohol. Go to the AWRS pages on GOV.UK to access this service. You must use the same username and password that you used for your original application.

If you do not

- tell us about any changes to your registration details; or
- meet the conditions and restrictions of the AWRS

then you may have to pay financial penalties and your alcohol stock may be subject to forfeiture (whether or not duty has been paid).

About our look-up service

We are introducing an online look-up service for AWRS from 1 April 2017. You can access this on our website at GOV.UK. This will allow your customers to check that you are approved as wholesalers of alcohol. Now that we have approved you, your details will appear on this service. To allow your customers to use this service, you must give them your AWRS reference number if they ask for it.
